

Deposit and Refund Policy

Deposits: As with most other lodges, the Katmai Wilderness Lodge requires deposits at the time bookings are made to secure a reservation during Alaska's short tourism season. Our receipt of your deposit of $500 per person in your party guarantees there will be space available for your party on the dates you want to be at the lodge.

In the event of cancellation, for any reason, a paid deposit will not be refunded. However, a paid deposit may be used for a future booking.

Package Fee: Due May 15th, or 60 days prior to arrival, whichever comes first. Fifty percent (50%) of a package fee will be refunded if Katmai Wilderness Lodge is notified prior to a guest's scheduled date of arrival. Otherwise, there are no refunds for "no-shows."
